

WORLD SAILING POLICY REGISTER

NAMES OF OLYMPIC EVENTS

1. Names of Olympic Events

- 1.1 The Board may decide from time to time the descriptive names of the Olympic Events having received the recommendation of the Events Committee. The Board shall consult the relevant Olympic class association(s) before making any decision. In deciding on the names, the Board shall have regard to:
 - (a) event naming standards used at the Olympic Games;
 - (b) common sailing parlance and the history of the Event;
 - (c) the marketability of the proposed name, in particular to international broadcast audiences; and
 - (d) the vision and objectives of World Sailing for the Olympic Games.
- 1.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the power of the Board to decide or change a descriptive name does not change or alter the Events or Equipment chosen for the Olympic Sailing Competition nor the decision-making process set out in the Constitution or Regulations.
