

On behalf of the Royal Irish Yacht Club, it is my great pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all delegates attending the World Sailing Conference from 2nd to 8th November.

As Commodore, I am honoured to offer all conference delegates honorary membership of the Royal Irish Yacht Club for the duration of the conference.

Our historic clubhouse is located in the heart of Dun Laoghaire. Founded in 1831, the RIYC is proud of its legacy as one of the oldest and most distinguished yacht clubs in the world, serving as a cornerstone of Irish sailing for nearly two centuries.

We look forward to welcoming you through our doors, whether you're enjoying a quiet moment by Dublin Bay, exploring our heritage, or joining fellow delegates in our dining and bar facilities. Our catering team is delighted to offer a selection of fine food and refreshments throughout your visit. We hope your time with us will be both memorable and inspiring, as we celebrate the enduring spirit of sailing together.

Tim Carpenter

Commodore of the Royal Irish Yacht Club
